DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 2-19 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claim 2, the prior art alone or in combination does not teach the limitation of a wiring board comprising: a conductive layer and first and second interconnecting lines formed between a substrate and a bank, wherein the conductive layer being formed in a position closer to the substrate than the second interconnecting line, and the vertical centerline of the conductive layer not coinciding with the vertical centerline of the second interconnecting line, and the conductive layer and the first interconnecting line respectively having portion which are not located under the second interconnecting line, and the portions extending in opposite width direction.

Claims 3-8 and 10-19 are variously depend on claim 2, they are allowed for the same reason.

With respect to claim 9, the prior art alone or in combination does not teach the limitation of a wiring board comprising a conductive layer and first and second interconnecting lines formed between a substrate and a bank, wherein the first interconnecting line constituting a part of a first drive circuit and the conductive layer and the second interconnecting line constituting a part of second drive circuit.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
